

Dare to Be Wise
Rabbi Zev-Hayyim Feyer

Our thought for today is
DARE TO BE WISE

We exercise wisdom spiritually when we feel another's need and respond to it.

DARE TO BE WISE

We exercise wisdom psychologically when we understand our own intentions.

DARE TO BE WISE

We act wisely when we fuse our human will and insight with Divine Intelligence and emerge as flexible human beings, capable of responding in faith to guidance and intuition.

DARE TO BE WISE

Our actions, thoughts, and feelings show wisdom
 when compassion leads us to love our fellow-beings.

DARE TO BE WISE

Wisdom brings balance to our emotions, and we relate to situations as masters, not by reflex.

DARE TO BE WISE

Wisdom is knowledge, spawned by love, nurtured by empathy, developed with values, and expressed as a responsible commitment to the self and to the other.

DARE TO BE WISE

And now, let us enter the silence, taking this thought with us and resting in it
