

Reach the Perfect Decision

א"ל

Rabbi Zev-Hayyim Feyer

Our thought for today is
REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

There is only one decision we must make, and that is to acquaint ourselves with the spiritual and psychological potential that is an innate part of our heritage.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

When we are confronted with the unknown, when we do not know the way to tread, when we have a difficult choice, when confusion reigns, only one decision is right.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

We must come out of hiding, come out from behind the safety defenses we build which keep us afraid of facing ourselves, our challenges, our commitments. Then we must turn our decision over to Divine Intelligence, Which is Wisdom and Love. G*d knows! G*d shows! And the way is assured.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

Love and Wisdom, when united as allies, are spiritually powerful to direct our actions into the fulfilling channels we seek.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

The key word is reach. The decision will not come to us until we reach out for it.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

“Decide not rashly,” says Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. “The decision made can never be recalled.” But when we reach out for it, we must not balk at the decision.

REACH THE PERFECT DECISION

And now, let us enter the silence, taking this thought with us and resting in it
