

There Is Always a New Beginning
Rabbi Zev-Hayyim Feyer

ה"ר

Our thought for today is
THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

Beginning and ending are activities of the same circuit. Whenever we begin again, something has had to end. Whenever something has ended, it is because a new beginning has forced a change, just as a blade of grass forces a change in the earth so it can slip through.

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

Wisdom can make beginning exciting if we plan our growth and progress intelligently.

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

Love makes beginning into an encounter, if we allow each new beginning to hold promise, not fear.

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

Beginning again is a verification of our emotional maturity, in that we do not regress nor do we become fixated on old, worn-out patterns of reacting which are comfortable and known.

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

Dare to begin again! Begin again to dare!

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

All glory comes from daring to begin.

THERE IS ALWAYS A NEW BEGINNING

And now, let us enter the silence, taking this thought with us and resting in it
